EGSC Appeals Process for Sexual Misconduct Cases

For all cases (both employee and students), either (or both) parties may disagree with a dismissal of a case, findings of the investigation of insufficient of evidence and dismissal, or findings of the panel. They shall have 5 days from date of dismissal or finding to appeal the decision.

The College is permitted, but not required, to dismiss complaints on the following grounds:

- A. The alleged conduct, even if proved, would not constitute sexual misconduct;
- B. The Complainant notifies the Coordinator in writing that they would like to withdraw the complaint;
- C. The Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the institution; or
- D. There are circumstances that prevent the institution from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination regarding the complaint.

The parties shall receive simultaneous written notice of the dismissal from the Title IX Coordinator and the reason(s) for the dismissal. The parties shall have a right to appeal the institution's decision to dismiss the complaint. The appeal must be made in writing and must be submitted within five business days of the notice of dismissal. The appeal should be made to the EGSC President. Appeal of the institution's appeal review finding may be made to BOR
